The sixth chapter meeting of the Spring 2017 Semester was held on April 7, 2017, at 10:05 a.m. in room W3 of Dunlap High School, in Dunlap, Illinois.

Members Present: Cameron Billings, Spencer Wolfe, Anna Spitzer, Jonathan Lee, Alex Hoerr, Lincoln Metzger, Henry Yi, Raj Patel, Tyler Allen, Jake Johnsen, Parker Koval, Jackson Koval, Hudson Hazlewood, Skylar Campbell, Max Griffin, Philip Unes, Klara Cockrell, Nithya Praveen, Jennifer Hu, Julia Tavares, Bruna Tavares, Hanifah Ali, Muhammad Rashdan, Zaman Shah, Steve Skeels, and Quinn Salverson,

New Business

Chapter President Bruna Tavares played the State Leadership Conference flashback video for our members.

Members who placed top ten at the State Leadership Conference were recognized for their achievement. Bruna Tavares, Hanifah Ali, and Yashodha Narayanan all qualified for the National Leadership Conference this summer in Anaheim, California.

Members were asked to pitch ideas for a fundraising opportunity to help pay for the National Leadership Conference expenses. Member Klara Cockrell suggested selling boxes of chocolate similar to other fundraisers done at the school.

Members participated in an FBLA-themed Kahoot.

Announcements

Chapter President Bruna Tavares announced that Dave Ramsey's $58,000 Financial Literacy Challenge for high school students is now open (scholarship opportunity). More information can be found on the meeting agenda, located on the Dunlap High School Website.

Members are encouraged to think of more fundraising opportunities for FBLA Nationals.

Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:30 a.m.
